

The Historical Society of the Tonawandas invites you to attend a Jazz Party & Conversation with Trina Robbins

Prominent cartoonist, illustrator, fashion designer (dressed Mama Cass and Donovan & others), author, historian, activist and was the first woman to draw “Wonder Woman”. Inducted into the Will Eisner Hall of Fame for creative achievement in American comic books.

Wear your favorite flapper fringe, beaded headpiece, feather boa or zoot suit and come swing to the music by Ladies First Jazz Combo.

Enjoy sumptuous hors d’oeuvres by Webster’s Bistro and an intimate conversation with Trina.

Ms. Robbins has been responsible for rediscovering previously forgotten early women cartoonists and has long been involved in creating outlets for and promoting female comics. On display will be an original evening gown designed by Gladys Parker and some of her original artwork from the Society’s collection. In addition, proofs (galleys) of Robbins’ biography of Parker will be available to preview.

Friday, March 27, 2020 from 5:30-8:30 pm
